

Tisha and the Vowels

The Short E Sound

e

E

Hello

I am Tisha.

My bed.

I get up.

Hello.

A nest.

An egg.

A shell.

a net

I get ten.

I am wet.

A jet.

A hen.

Hello red hen.

A pen.

a bell.

a sled

Get set !

Let's go !

The end

Rachel Marguillan

©2017 Je joue, tu joues, nous apprenons.

<http://jejoue-tujoues-nousapprenons.com>

Learn to Read with Tisha

Tisha and the Vowels N*2

- Tisha and the vowels, focusing on the short E sound , is the second reader of a series for learning the vowel sounds .
- To go along with each book there is some activity pages , ideas for moms ,sight words flash cards and a card game for building the CVC words of the book. You can find them on my blog : <http://jejoue-tujoues-nousapprenons.com>
- When you subscribe on my blog you can get more of the “Tisha and the vowels” readers for free!
- Print this reader on cardstock ,pages 1 to20 , opting for the booklet option on your printer. Assemble and staple.

Thank you for downloading this Reader. By downloading this file you agree to respect my terms of use.

- This file is only for personal use, at home or in your classroom.

You can't:

- Share by mail, on a site or any other way like Dropbox for example.
- Sell or make profit of this file , either printed or the electronic file.
- Modify this file, copy even parts of it, or claim it as your property.

You are welcome :

- Download and save this file and print as many copies as you want for your kids or class
- Share the link of the page of <http://jejoue-tujoues-nousapprenons.com> where you can find this PDF file.