

Tisha and the Vowels

The Short O Sound

Rachel Marguillan

<http://jejoue-tujoues-nousapprenons.com>

Hi, I am Tisha.

Hi dog !

Hot pot !

Stop ! It is hot !

Here is a log .

come see the frog !

The frog is on the log.

A rock.

I am on top of the rock !

Here is a block

I see a lot of blocks.

A lock.

Where is my sock ?

Here is a clock !

A top ! It has red dots.

What is in the box ?

We see you

Fox !

The end.

Rachel Marguillan

©Copyright 2017

Learn to Read with Tisha

Tisha and the Vowels

- Tisha and the vowels, focusing on the short O sound , is the fourth reader of a series for learning the vowel sounds .
- To go along with each book there is some activity pages , ideas for moms ,sight words flash cards and a card game for building the CVC words of the book. You can find them on my blog : <http://jejoue-tujoues-nousapprenons.com>
- When you subscribe on my blog you can get more of the “Tisha and the vowels” readers for free!
- Print this reader on cardstock , pages 1 to20, opting for the booklet option on your printer. Assemble and staple.

Thank you for downloading this Reader. By downloading this file you agree to respect my terms of use.

- This file is only for personal use, at home or in your classroom.

You can't:

- Share by mail, on a site or any other way like Dropbox for example.
- Sell or make profit of this file , either printed or the electronic file.
- Modify this file, copy even parts of it, or claim it as your property.

You are welcome :

- Download and save this file and print as many copies as you want for your kids or class
- Share the link of the page of <http://jejoue-tujoues-nousapprenons.com> where you can find this PDF file.